TOURS:

Friday 10:30am-1:30pm -Historic Portsmouth city tour, including St. Paul's church (lunch included): $60. The oldest Catholic congregation in town held its first service in 1803. The present building was dedicated in 1905, and is listed on the National Register of Historic Places. It is the only structure in Old Portsmouth with a flying buttress. There may be possible options for transportation (golf cart or scooters) for an extra cost (TBD).

Saturday: Naval Shipyard Water Cruise Tour, 1:45-4:00pm: $28. See fair sights, you seafarer, as we board the good ship "Victory Rover" for a two-hour narrated cruise past the Naval Yard, home of the U.S. Atlantic Fleet... destroyers, guided missile cruisers, submarines, aircraft carriers and lots of commercial sea traffic. The "Rover" has plenty of comfortable seating, an air-conditioned enclosed deck, an open-air shaded upper deck, snack bar, and souvenir shop. Extra cost for the ferry to cross the river ($4-$5 round trip); for those who wish, go early and spend time at the Nauticus Museum and have lunch.

Other places (within walking distance of the hotel) include the Hill House Museum (2 blocks), Anderson-Wright Rooms and Gardens (10 blocks), and Portsmouth Art and Cultural Center (8 blocks).

More Options: Visit the nearby Nauticus Museum with its naval history and resident showpiece the USS Wisconsin, an Iowa-class battleship that served in World War II. Or see the Portsmouth Naval Shipyard Museum (one block away from hotel) with artifacts from the local shipyard.

The weekend includes 3 nights lodging, breakfasts at the hotel and dinner on Saturday night.
